

MASONIC FUNERAL AT WESTERLY

Local and Providence Lodges Pay Final Honors to Henry P. Morgan—Catholic Club Bests Firemen at Pool—Collins-Champlin Auto Suit Compromised on Payment of $325—Fines in Assault Case.

Joseph L. Peacock and Ethel W. Wilcox, librarian and librarian emerita, respectively, of the Westerly public library, have received invitations to attend the joint meeting of the Rhode Island Library association and the New England Club of Library Commission Workers to be held at the Rhode Island normal school, next Tuesday afternoon. There will be addresses by Rev. W. H. Hartshorn of Bates college, member of the Maine Public Library commission, on the Value of Reading Fiction, and by Charles D. Hine, secretary of the state board of education, and chairman of the Connecticut public library commission. There will also be a brief address by Frank G. Bates, president of the Rhode Island library association. After the address there will be a general discussion on The Place of Fiction in the Public Library.

The first of a series of pool matches between teams representing the Catholic club of Westerly, and the Peleg S. Barber hose company of Pawcatuck was played in the rooms of the Catholic club in the presence of large numbers of both organizations. The match was won with ease by the Catholic club players. The score follows:

A. Twomey	10	7	12-43
J. Hubbert	5	8	5-25
C. Leo Higgins	10	6	5-25
J. Kane	5	10	7-28

The Christian Endeavor World celebrates the eighth birthday of William Howard Doane by devoting several pages to the life work of the world-renowned pastor, inventor and financier. Dr. Doane was born in Preston, February 3, 1825, and in early life he united with the Central Baptist church in Norwich. There is a front-page picture of Dr. Doane at Echo Ridge, Wash. Hill, showing him seated at the piano playing an accompaniment for Fanny Crosby, the blind singer. The article is illustrated with a portrait of Dr. Doane, Sunday Side, his residence in Cincinnati, his music room at Sunny Side with the doctor of music at the organ, and also a picture of the birthplace of Dr. Doane in Preston, Conn.

The case of Russell Collins, brought by his mother, Emma Collins, against J. Frank Champlin, manager of the Ocean house, Watch Hill, claiming damages of $500 for injuries received by being struck by an automobile owned by respondent, was reported as settled at the Friday session of the Third district court, Judge Oliver H. Williams. Counsel stated that the complainant had been satisfied with the payment of $255, and the case was taken from the court docket.

In the book account case of the Westerly Furniture company against Ellisha E. Carpenter, judgment was given for defendant to recover costs. The continued case against James T. Blake, charged with assaulting his wife, was called for trial and the accused pleaded guilty. After the circumstances were fully explained by Town Solicitor Harry B. Agard, and by Judge John W. Sweeney, counsel for accused, Judge Williams declared that the family of Blake needed the money more than did the state of Rhode Island and that six months in the Providence jail would result in hardship in the Blake family. Sentence was deferred and Blake was put on probationary payment of costs, and is to report in person weekly to the judge of the probate court during probationary period.

Louis and Joseph Brognio, who with Pasquale Prestomario, were arrested, charged with an assault upon Nicolò Comodi, changed their plea of not guilty to nolo contendere. Town Solicitor Agard explained that the Brognio brothers were mixed up in the New Year's night row in a house in Pierce street when Comodi was cut with a razor. Prestomario pleaded guilty to the cutting, when arraigned a week ago and was sentenced to the Providence county jail for six months and to pay a fine of $150 and costs. The solicitor explained that but for the information given by the Brognio the police would have had more difficulty in apprehending the man who actually used the razor, and suggested that this fact be taken into consideration in passing sentence, for as a rule, it is extremely difficult to get information from this class of people in cases where the law is violated. He suggested a fine rather than jail sentence under the circumstances. Judge Sweeney, attorney for the Brognio brothers, referred to the general reputation of the accused during their long residence in Westerly, explaining that while they were mixed up in the battle royal, they had nothing to do directly with the assault upon Prestomario with a dangerous weapon. Judge Williams imposed a fine of $10 and costs in each case, which was paid.

Owing to the failure of the express train from Niagara Falls to connect with the train from New York for Boston, due to arrive in Westerly at 1:51, Friday afternoon, the funeral of Henry Pendleton Morgan, who died suddenly at his home in Niagara Falls, was delayed until evening. Franklin lodge Masons were preparing to attend the funeral when a telegram was received that the train bearing the body was an hour late in arriving at New York, and therefore did not connect with the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad train, as arranged. Notice of the delay was at once sent to Providence and received there just in time to prevent the members of Orpheus Masonic lodge from boarding the train that arrived in Westerly at 12:15.

The Providence Masons arrived in Westerly at 3:16, and were escorted to Franklin lodge room. The funeral party arrived at 4:46 and were met at the train by the Westerly and Providence Masons. Burial was in River bend cemetery, according to the Masonic ritual.

STONINGTON

Mistuxet Club to Celebrate 20th Anniversary—Boys on Track Jump to Escape Express.

The Mistuxet club of Stonington will celebrate the 20th year of its existence Tuesday evening next, when a banquet will be served. The club was organized Jan. 27, 1892. The first rooms hired for the club's gathering were the upper part of the building north of the Ocean house, where it held its meetings for two years until it moved, owing to the growth of the club, to the Potter block, Nov. 17, 1893. The members remained there for over eight years, and in 1902, when the building corner of Water and Union streets was completed, the Mistuxet club moved there and occupied the entire second floor, which had been made for them according to plans designated by a committee appointed by the club. The officers are: President, Charles H. Cowan; vice president, Harry F. Chesbro; secretary, John H. Ryan; treasurer, George H. Robinson; executive committee, John Lillingham, Leonard Fairbrother, Ed Teed; house committee, John H. Tillingham, L. D. Fairbrother, John H. Ryan; caterer, Corcoran F. Crandall. The club has a name for pool and whist matches, and the members are expert players for this section of the county.

Since organization there have been four deaths. Charles T. Eaton and Leonard Grover of the borough, Walter Collins of Jersey City and Charles Pendleton of Brooklyn, N. Y. The first president of the club was James H. Silvers and the second one the late George D. Stanton, Jr., and the present one, who has filled the place so acceptably, Charles Cowan. George H. Robinson has been treasurer for nineteen years. Harry F. Chesbro vice president for 16 years and Charles Cowan has filled the chair as president for 15 years. John H. Ryan has been secretary 11 years. The club has 17 charter members on its list and 43 active members enrolled.

Hooks to Entertain. The Hook and Ladder company of the borough will entertain the borough and fire department this (Saturday) evening.

Plans for New Sewer. The sewer through Church street, which has been in contemplation by the authorities, has already been surveyed, and the plans will be in readiness soon. Right of way to the harbor has been secured, and the work will be rushed to completion as soon as the project is favorably voted upon at a special meeting of the citizens of the borough, which will be called as soon as possible after the plans are ready.

Boys Warned from Track. Thursday afternoon at 4:05 o'clock extra freight No. 208 was west bound, when four boys climbed up the bank of the railroad on the curve just at the crossing and stood on the east bound track waiting for the freight to pass. Crossing Tender James Leitch, knowing the risker's predicament, expressed in the block, fastened his gates down and waved his arms and hands and shouted to the boys. He attracted their attention just in time for

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE

LADIES' AFTERNOON OR HOME DRESS.

For a combination of materials an over blouse of this kind is very desirable. The underwaist could be of net, lace or silk, with the body and skirt of the dress of silk, cloth or velvet. As here shown dotted chiffon in blue and black was used over blue tulle, with figured net for the underwaist. The free edges of the blouse were piped with satin. The waist pattern 9003 is cut in five sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. The skirt pattern 9048 is cut in five sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure. It requires 1 1/2 yards of 27-inch material for the underwaist and 3 1/2 yards of 44-inch material for skirt and overblouse for the 36-inch size. This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents FOR EACH, in silver or stamps.
